Dedication

Our Hero!

Curiosity: A young Mr. Wilson out in nature.

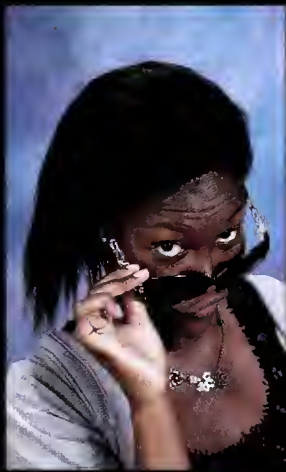

Pure joy: It was hard to hide his enthusiasm while visiting the Galapagos.

The yearbook staff is happy to dedicate the 2011-2012 yearbook to Mr. Rob Wilson. Whether you know him from 9th-grade health or AP Biology, BTC Hawk Watch or the random bird calls that sometimes animate our hallways, you probably appreciate Mr. Wilson's creative teaching methods and passion for ornithology. In 2010, he was recognized nationally as an exceptional educator, earning a spot on the Toyota International Teacher trip to the Galápagos Islands. Thank you, Mr. Wilson, for your dedication to your students and your service in the Rowland Hall community.

Left to right: At age 3, he already looks excited to learn! Mr. Wilson poses with a Galápagos tortoise. A happy Mr. Wilson at age 1. Mr. Wilson and his faithful and loving companion, Dulce the yellow lab.

Seniors

We're all grown up!

Seniors, we managed to drag ourselves through our final year at Rowland Hall, including the ultimate task of applying to and choosing our colleges. This marks the end of many things. Farewell to the "book of the week", detentions, morning meetings, AP tests, finding a parking spot, and all the rest. Now we head into the future with all we have learned, eager to leave but also feeling sad that our time at Rowland Hall is over. Here's to our future, but don't forget the past.

There's only one problem with America: it is not Sweden.

-Anonymous

Rutger Ahlrup

Reality is merely an illusion, albeit a very persistent one.

-Albert Einstein

David Andrews

I've learned that you can get by on charm for about 15 minutes. After that, you'd better know something.

-Anonymous

Will Badenhausen

If it looks like a duck, and quacks like a duck, we have at least to consider the possibility that we have a small aquatic bird of the family Anatidae on our hands.

-Douglas Adams

Nels Ballard

If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door.

-Milton Berle

Jonathan Bebbington

Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail.

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Charis Benjamin

Your sister once ate so much yam she turned orange? Impossible. By that logic I'd be chocolate colored.

-Herself

Noelani Blueford

We never really grow up, we only learn how to act in public.

-Bryan White

Julia Bodson

Sii forte e coraggiosi non ti spaventare e non ti sgomentare, perché il Signore, il tuo Dio, sarà con te dovunque andrai.

-Eisue 1:9

Matteo Brunelli

Football is like life - it requires perseverance, self-denial, hard work, sacrifice, dedication and respect for authority.

-Vince Lombardi

Parker Bushnell

Genevieve Couldwell

Surrealism had a great effect on me because then I realised that the imagery in my mind wasn't insanity. Surrealism to me is reality.

-John Lennon

Ryan DeBlanc

No, I'm not from Canada. I'm from Canada. It's like Canada in another dimension.

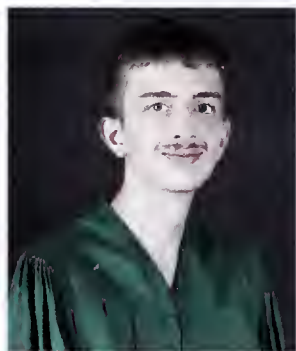

-Himself

Hope Delap

For one cannot say anything about anything that is, without always already having made assumptions about the is as such.

-Dillon 99

Andrew Deneris

The most incomprehensible thing about the world is that it is comprehensible.

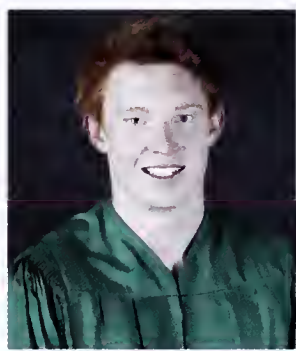

-Albert Einstein

Danelle Devine

True love only happens once in a lifetime, but bacon can happen seven times a day if you want.

-The Outmeal

Carter Dowd

Life is too important to be taken seriously.

-Oscar Wilde

Christopher Fanning

Don't worry about the world coming to an end today. It is already tomorrow in Australia.

-Charles Schulz

Maher Farrukh

That others may live.

-USAF Pararescue

Olivia Filion

It is our choices... that show what we truly are, far more than our abilities.

-Dumbledore

Claire Friedman

I don't take nothin' from no one. I do what I wanna do and I'm gonna do that until the day I die and if I can't do that then I'll just die.

-Lil Wayne

Winning isn't everything, but the will to win is everything.

-Vince Lombardi

Andy Gilbert

To see far is one thing,
to go there is another.

-Constantin Brancusi

John Gilbert

Get up, boy! Wake it an' shake it! It's time to get to makin' your mark in the world!

-Ken Kesey

Manon Gilmore

If God had intended us to follow recipes, he wouldn't have given us grandmothers.

-Linda Henley-Smith

Jena Glazier

What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Jake Graves

There's a time and place for everything, and it's called college.

-Chef

Sophie Hochhauser

Walk on through the wind, walk on through the rain, though your dreams be tossed and blown. Walk on, walk on, with hope in your heart, and you'll never walk alone.

-Rodgers and Hammerstein

Michaela Hori

I'm gonna be on top.
That's all my eyes can
see. Victory is mine, yeah, surprisingly.

-Guru

Samuel Jackson

Yeah it's tough being smart AND sexy.

-Tina Fey

Sophie Jones

Violinists love to play an E string, but audiences really love a G string.

-The Producers

Kyleene Johnson

Kyle Jordan

Work hard, party hard.
-Brantford Winstonworth

Elizabeth Kimball

I am leaving because I am bored.
-George Sanders

Chelsea Klein

There's nowhere you can be that isn't where you're meant to be.
-John Lennon

Chase Kroesche

I don't care much about music. What I like is sounds.
-Dizzy Gillespie

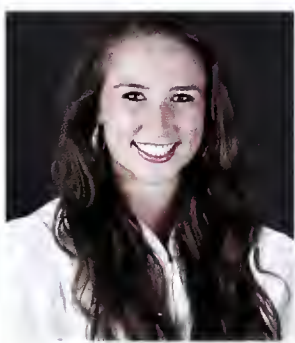

Desmond Legge

Anyone who lives within their means suffers
from a lack of imagination.
-Oscar Wilde

Lucy Lewis

Things are beautiful if you love them.
-Jean Anouilh

Christine Lusey

All you need is faith, trust and a little pixie dust.
-Tinker Bell

Carson Lyness

Never say never because never never will.
-The Princess Bride

Bunyanut Mankalaphiban

Be like a postage stamp.
Stick to a thing till you get there.
-Josh Billings

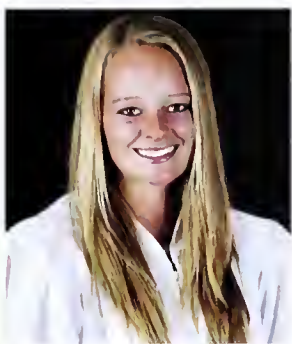

Sara Mann

Stay young. Stay Foolish.
-Steve Jobs

A man is a success if he gets up in the morning and goes to bed at night, and in between, does what he wants to.

-Bob Dylan

Perry Martin

Knowledge is knowing that a tomato is a fruit; wisdom is knowing not to put it in a fruit salad.

-Brian O'Driscoll

Kellyn Maves

I know less about women than anyone else in the world.

-George Costanza

Zachary Merrill

If they want peace, nations should avoid the pinpricks that precede cannon shots.

-Napoleon Bonaparte

Sarah Mian

Don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened.

-Dr. Seuss

McCall Moody

And though the course may change sometimes, rivers always reach the sea.

-Robert Plant

Taylor Mullin

I never want to have kids; I just want to adopt a really short old man.

-The Janitor From Scrubs

Emma Naatz

It's better to be hurt by the truth than to gain satisfaction from the lies.

-David Allan

Nguyen Nguyen

Ignorantia non est argumentum.

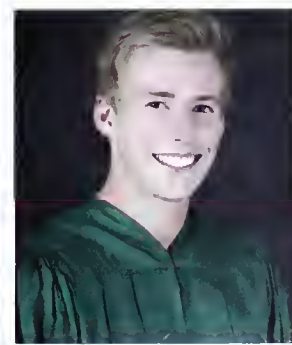

-Baruch Spinoza

Caroline Nielsen

If you can't find something to live for, you best find something to die for.

-Tupac Shakur

Sam Nolan

Rainy Paul

Happiness is the secret to all beauty. There is no beauty without happiness.
-Christian Dior

Richard Peterson

Everything should be as simple as possible, but not one bit simpler.
-Albert Einstein

Sydney Rich

It's not that I don't know that it's a bad idea. It's that, lately, bad ideas have a particular hold over me.
-Holly Black

Jordan Ruga

Realize how they capitalize on your closed eyes.
-Himself

Breeanne Saxton

You don't grow by staying within your comfort zone. You'll be a stinky stagnant little pool of moldy potential with little insects buzzing around and having desperate sexy times and laying eggs all over the damn place.
-Phil McAndrews

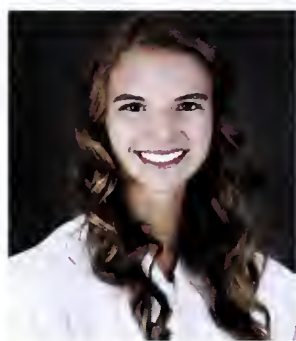

Stephanie Schott

Brick walls are there to stop the people who don't want it badly enough.
-Randy Pausch

Kapil Sharma

The road to success is always under construction.
-Lily Tomlin

Reid Silverman

Would I rather be feared or loved? Easy, both. I want people to be afraid of how much they love me.
-Michael Scott

Anna Smith

Some people want it to happen, some wish it would happen, others make it happen.
-Michael Jordan

Rachel Snyder

Choose happiness.
-The Janitor From Scrubs

What'll we do with ourselves this afternoon? And the day after that, and the next thirty years?

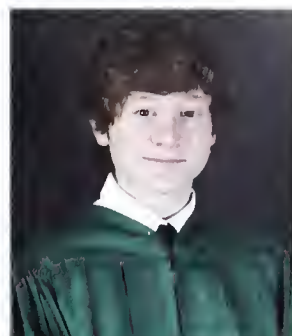

-F. Scott Fitzgerald

Madeleine Strait

The general walks the field after a battle. Churned earth, burnt tanks, dead men. He takes up a dying officer, kisses him, surveys the havoc, and says: 'I love it. God help me I do love it so. I love it more than my life.'

-James Hillman 2004

Christopher Sundquist

We tend to forget that happiness doesn't come as a result of getting something we don't have, but rather recognizing and appreciating what we do have.

-Frederick Keating

Sydney Tatomer

I've failed over and over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed.

-Michael Jordan

Scott Treiman

If you take shortcuts, you get cut short.

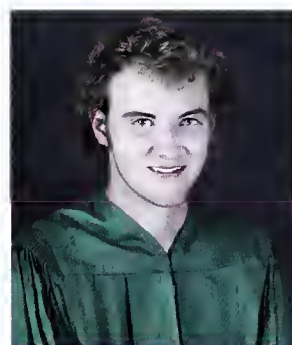

-Rev Run Run DMC

Kekumi Tua'one

If the current crisis turns into a depression, what rough beasts might start slouching toward Moscow, Karachi, Beijing, and New Delhi to be born?

-Walter Mead

Jacob Tucker

We are not going to war "in the name of peace" as deceitful rhetoric so often declares, but rather for war's own sake: to understand the madness of its love.

-James Hillman 2004

Juniors

Junior year has brought many new opportunities to the class of 2013. We can now participate in AP classes, drive, consider ourselves upper classmen, go to prom, get involved in our community through Project 11, and even begin the college selection process. Everyone knows Junior year is the most difficult and most rewarding. Congratulations, we made it!

Sophomores

Sophomore year brought new responsibilities and expectations. The class of 2014 got the opportunity to participate in Beyond the Classroom learning life and career skills such as car repair, computer game design, and cell biology. We enjoyed the freedom of off campus lunch everyday and boast the highest athletic participation rate in the school. We are the last to take Western Civilizations with Mr. Baxter and were privileged with other great teachers, including Mr. Mond, Mrs. Teschabrun, Mr. Kopish, Ms. Tobin, Dr. Taylor, and Dr. Johnson.

Freshmen

As Freshmen, We don't have the privileges that the upperclassmen have, but we love the high school. We may not be the "royalty" of the middle school, but we also don't have uniforms either! With the help of our great teachers like Mr. Hayes, Ms. Herrington, Mr. Long, and Mr. Wilson, soon we will be known as the greatest grade that Rowland Hall has ever known. This is our first year in high school, and we are taking it by storm!

Faculty and Staff

Our thanks to the Rowland Hall faculty and staff for your support. Our school would be nothing without you. The teachers create a family-like environment while still challenging us to think for ourselves. The maintenance staff keeps things running smoothly, the cafeteria staff makes us happy and healthy, the tech staff recovers our 10-page papers when we accidentally delete them at 2am, and the administration runs the whole show. We are indeed lucky to have such great support at Rowland Hall!

Aloha Stomp

The dance floor: Warming up the dance floor is the only way to start the school year right.

The Aloha Stomp was held at the Lower School campus and DJ'd by K.J. Tua'one and Sam Jackson, keeping the crowd pumped all night. Students showed up in leis and hula skirts to dance, sing, and party the night away. The Aloha Stomp was a successful event, and a great way to kick off the new school year.

A tough choice: Desmond Legge, K.J. Tua'one, and Sam Jackson argue over which song to play next.

Hail to the chief: Student body president Will Badenhausen addresses the whole school.

Convocation

*"I love it when the seniors high five the little ones."
- Linda Hampton*

Senior pride: Sydney Tatomer, Lucy Lewis, Chelsea Klein, Rainy Paul, Olivia Filion, and Jacob Tucker show everybody that they have school spirit.

Left to right: Richard Petersen, Andy Gilbert, Charis Benjamin, and David Andrews. Wesley Austin looks ahead to a new school year. Sara Mann and Emma Naatz are happy and they know it! Kyle Jordan, Chelsea Klein, Rainy Paul, Olivia Filion, Carter Dowd, and Rachel Snyder sing along to our school song.

Sing your heart out: Micha Hori, Kyleene Johnson, Josh Cole, and Jenna Reed perform with the choir at convocation.

The new and popular tradition of the all-school convocation was a great show of school spirit this year. Students walked from the Lincoln to the McCarthy campus so the whole school could celebrate the new year together. At Convocation, Trace Browning introduced us to a new year and led us in songs. Alan Sparrow gave a speech, as did student body president Will Badenhausen. Everyone who came said that it was a fun experience for all.

Strike up the band: Upper School band combo Chase Kroesche, Doug Labov, Matt Browning, and Nate Carlisle provide the prelude music.

High-fives all around: Kyle Jordan and Carter Dowd with Lower School students, kicking off a new year.

Thanks be to God: Trace Browning leads the entire school in prayer.

Left to right: Eileen Hopf, Kate Smith, and Megan Chandramouli trade data for their upcoming Biology paper. Zach Levinthal gives a smile as he walks towards the bus. Harry Aaronson is feeling a bit cold during lunch. Georgia Larsen poses in front of the cliffs as someone attempts to steal her hat.

Hey, what's this?: Zach Carlisle showing how excited he is to be in Kanab.

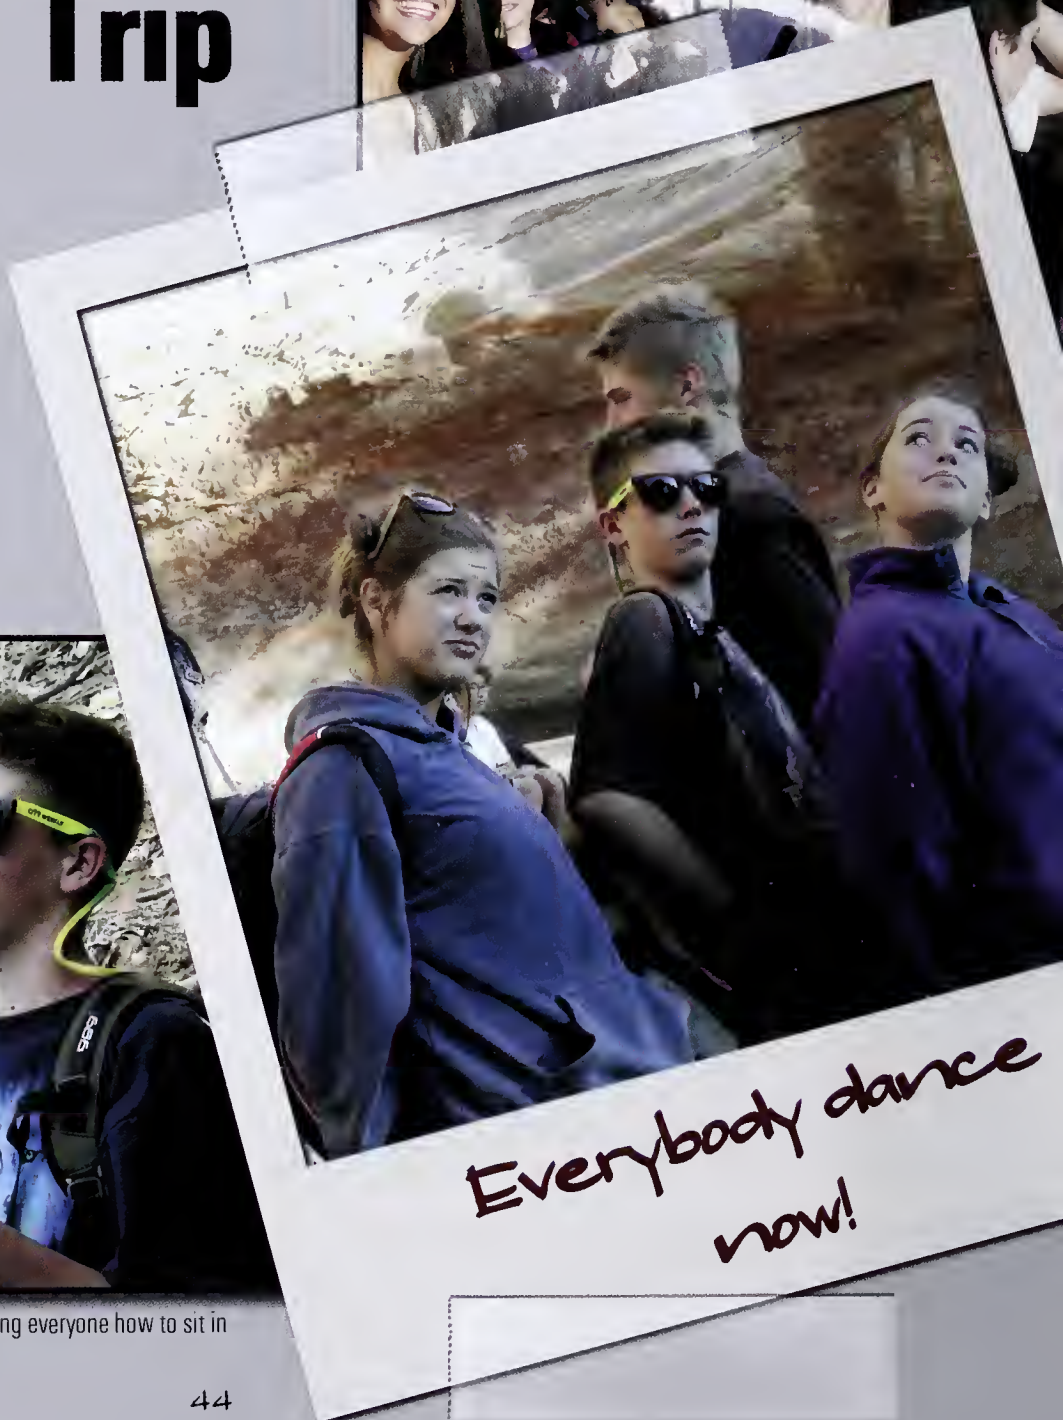

Freshman Trip

"You can never have too much of a good thing!"

-Mr. Hayes

The sunglasses gang: Max Fisher, Mackay Hare, and Riley Nevins showing everyone how to sit in style.

The thinker: On the bus ride to Best Friend's Animal Sanctuary, where we repainted the cat's house, Zach Pollatsek contemplates the meaning of life.

The freshman class found a home away from home and returned with multitudes of skills and ideas from the freshman trip. We had lots of free time; we played Frisbee, football, or just talked during our long lunch breaks and listened to ghost stories that were so scary that some students weren't able to sleep afterwards. We were also able to participate in academically challenging activities such as studying water quality, collecting plant samples, learning how to study, and becoming educated in how to effectively use imagery in writing. Finally, the class of 2015 gave back to the community by helping Best Friends Animal Sanctuary repaint their cat house to make it easier to clean and better for the cats. The freshmen had fun in the sun and took home an experience we'll never forget!

Have I got a story for you: Eileen Hopf suppresses laughter while Lauren Utz tells a funny story the hour long lunch break.

Learning is fun: Taylor Porges, Jason Chang, Mackay Hare, Lauren Utz, and Eileen Hopf read poetry outside.

Remember when?: Grace Veghte serves up hot chocolate with a smile during the 7:30am breakfast.

Spirit Week

Now that's spirit!

Spirit Week 2011-2012 was once again a blast. The entire school took advantage of the opportunity to dress up in silly costumes without being ridiculed. And we all got the canned food drive off to a quick start!

- Monday: Black and White Day
- Tuesday: Preppy Day
- Wednesday: Cowboys & Aliens
- Thursday: Career Day
- Friday: Nerd Day

Canapalooza

Dynamite

The departure: Ryan and Maci DeBlanc's band rocks the crowd for the finale.

Canapalooza is an annual event held to kick off the school's can food drive. Students have the opportunity to perform music or show off other talents in front of the school. This year's Canapalooza attracted a large audience and featured great performances by students, teachers, and alumni. Performances varied widely, keeping the crowd entertained throughout the night. The host, Chase Kroesche, did a phenomenal job organizing and performing. All in all, the night has become a tradition and a successful show of student performances.

Party on: Alex Beaufort plays the guitar and sings as Carl Noble and Rick Yoo dance along.

Left to right: Hannah Morris is excited to give a helping hand to her community. Jason Chang hangs decorations for This Is the Place Park. Connor Nelson and K.J. Tua'one set up decorations at This Is the Place. Alex Beaufort, Sage Atkinson-Becwith, Ryan DeBlanc, Micha Hori, Kapil Sharma, Camille Backman, Katherine Edgley, Lauren Utz, and Chase Pope sing for the edlerly at Emeritus.

Half Day of Service

Put some elbow into it: Cory Abdalla nails in some stakes to help set up Halloween decorations.

In just one afternoon, 700 hours of service to 19 different non-profits were contributed by our students, teachers, and volunteer parents. It is amazing what our community can do when we work together -- plus, it was a lot of fun and a beautiful day.

-Liz Paige

Insert chicken joke here!

Pack that cheese: Dalton Provost and Harry Aaronson make lunches for the homeless.

On October 12, Rowland Hall students took part in the ninth annual Half Day of Service. This event gets the entire school out working in the community. Working with 19 different organizations, the school donated a total of 700 hours of service. Hope DeLap and Liz Paige did a wonderful job this year organizing this schoolwide event.

Service is fun! Lainey Epperson and Junior Zoutomou flash smiles after a great day of making food for the homeless.

Take a breath: Carter Dowd and Jake Graves prepare to plant some trees at Tree Utah.

Making friends: Señora Thomas poses with the staff of Hildegard's Pantry

Halloween Stomp

On October 28, students gathered in their costumes for the Halloween Stomp at the McCarthy campus. DJ'd by Sam Jackson, it was a well-attended stomp. As always, many students came in interesting costumes, and the Photography Club took studio portraits. Some of our favorites are pictured here.

Look at our Rowland Hall royalty: Lauren Utz, Jenna Reed, and Sophia Diehl hit the dance floor.

Left to right: Liz Paige wears her snazzy bumblebee suit. Thomas Bebbington, the gnome, chills with his lax-bro, Teddy Janes. Kayla Cottingham and Simone Williams look fancy as Atticus Finch and a fairy-unicorn princess. Abigail Hill and Megan Chandramouli wear eye-catching wigs.

Beyond the Classroom

It takes a steady hand: Trevor Falls puts muscle into lifting a car during the vehicle-maintenance seminar.

Oh man, my feet: Sophomores Kayla Cottingham and Simone Williams take a break from Mr. Wilson's hawkwatching trip.

Hands-on!

Top to Bottom: Sophomores Matt Browning, Harry Stone, and Trevor Falls work on a tire. Teddy Janes works on a band saw. Colby Russo-Hatch fills a graduated cylinder with stream water. Camila Reed-Guevara inspects a caterpillar. Enzo Wiener and Caleb Chodash sit on the set of KSL news.

Look what I made: Micah Willis gets excited about his video game design project

In its first year, the Beyond the Classroom program replaced Winter Sports as an opportunity to take the learning experience into the larger community. The freshmen worked as a class on opportunities to take their learning to a new level. The sophomores learned career and life skills in small groups. The juniors worked on different community service projects. Select seniors worked on résumés and cover letters for their internships during the time between AP tests and graduation.

Left to right: Bree Saxton sadly watches the Crucifixion. Alex Beaufort, Teddy Janes, and Maddy Strait listen intently. Chase Kroesche listens to the song his followers sing. Aaron Wadley rocks light and sound in the stage booth.

Godspell

"One of the best performances I have ever seen." - Jessica Barker

It's all for the best: Micah Willis questions what's going on.

Bravo: The entire Godspell cast gathers for the finale.

The Crucifixion

Spreading the word: Jesus, played by Chase Kroeche, teaches the children about love.

This year's musical theater production of Godspell, performed by a combined Middle and Upper School cast, was an overwhelming success. Written and first performed in 1971, Godspell is an American folk rock musical based on the gospel according to the book of Matthew. It was another great success!

Day by day: Breeanne Saxton, McKarah Dreyfous, Anya Tchoupakov, and Kyleene Johnson lead the rest of the cast in song.

French and Latin Clubs

Bonjour from the French Club: Mr. Wortham, Lucius Bynum, Trevor Falls, Olivia Pecora, Silvia Padilla, Kayla Cottingham, Zach Levinthal, Saeed Shihab, Abeni Czajkowski, Kiersten Cutler, Ikwo Frank, Sonia Grunwald, Eleanor Layfield, Julia Goldman, Zach Deneris, Afras Sial, Ling Ling Ritter, Drew Dischmann, Ariel Feola, Sydney Maves, Scout Swenson, Bailey Kirby, Camille Backman, Caterina Brunelli, Simone Williams, Karim Shabaan, Matteo Brunelli, Maddy Strait, Charis Benjamin, Sara Mann, Kellyn Maves, Olivia Filion, Kapil Sharma, Ellie Kimball, and Kyleene Johnson.

Latin Club has long history at Rowland Hall. Led by senior, Manon Gilmore, the club hosted a Toga Bowling event in early March. Yay Latin!

Salve from the Latin Club: Connor Nelson, Matteo Brunelli, Jacob Germain, Austen Van Burns, Adria Lam, Anya Tchoupakov, Breezy Johnson, Claire Friedman, Manon Gilmore, Ally Larcom, Chris Fedor, Julia Bodson, Zach Levinthal, Aaron Friedman, Teddy Janes, Katherine Edgely and, Leigh Hunt.

Top to bottom: Claire Friedman, Teddy Janes, and Aaron Friedman in Latin Club. Manon Gilmore, Latin Club President, doesn't need a secretary Sara Mann is happy to be in French Club. Sonia Rubinfeld watches as Jacob Germain offers his input for Latin Club. Leigh Hunt and Ally Larcom promote Latin Club with last year's t-shirts.

Throughout the year, the French Club has focused on supporting Haiti. A crepe sale in late February raised money for victims of Haiti's recent earthquake and will be used to buy water, food, and building materials. Nice work!

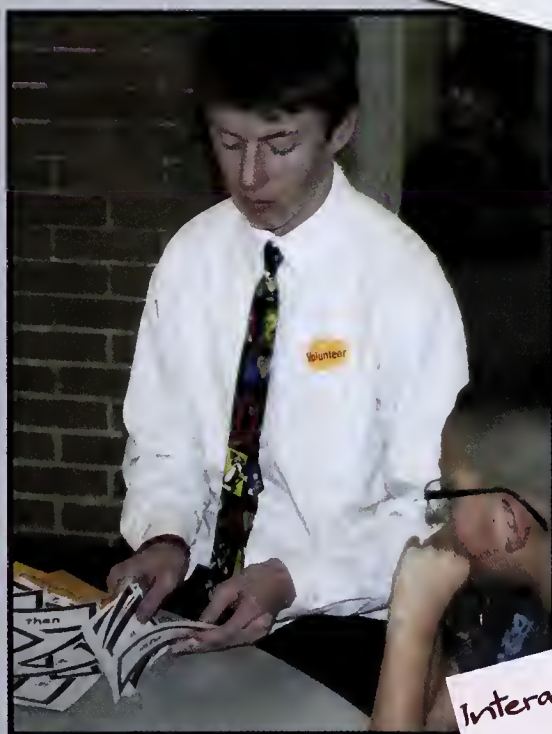

Interact

Coffee Sales!

Genius at work: Ryan Westermann tutors a student at Guadalupe Elementary

Interact is Rowland Hall's most active community service club. Club members have devoted themselves to helping less fortunate members of the local and worldwide community throughout the year. This year, the Interact Club chose to support an organization called, "Charity: Water," which attempts to provide clean drinking water to poorer communities. Club members held coffee and hot cocoa sales to raise money for their dinner at the end of March, raising money for Charity: Water. Additionally, Interact Club members tutored kids from Guadalupe Elementary, volunteered at the food bank, and helped in community gardens. Thanks for all of your hard work in our community!

Top to bottom: Enrique, a student from Guadalupe, smiles after receiving tutoring help from an Interact member. Johnny Gilbert reviews flashcards with a student. Emily Sundquist reads a story. The club's board members: Johnny Gilbert, Maher Farukh, Lila Thulin, Leigh Hunt, and Andy Gilbert. Gerald, another student, shows off the stickers that he was awarded by his tutors.

Amnesty International

Front to back: Annie White, Caroline Nielson, Hope Delap, Rachel Snyder Julia Bodson, Mr. Burnett, Maher Farrukh, Emily Sundquist, Katie White and Nikita Abraham.

Christmas cards to those in need

Rowland Hall's Amnesty International Club has worked throughout the year to promote human rights and to fight against injustice. Their annual holiday card action fundraiser was hugely successful—allowing students to personally fight against injustice by writing to those around the world who have been wrongly punished. The club has hosted several other fundraisers as well, including their sales of chocolates, apple pies, and cookies. Congratulations on another successful year!

Writing buddies: Sonia Grunwald and Emily Sundquist write letters to a prisoner.

Pride Alliance

Rainbow stomp!

Peace out: Anna Kelly and Kate Smith greet people at the Rainbow Stomp!

The Pride Alliance has and will continue to make strides in helping LGBT community members gain equal rights. Within the Rowland Hall community, the Pride Alliance offers a safe place for expression, support, and discussion with the goal of raising the level of acceptance. Hosted by the Pride Alliance in December, the Rainbow Stomp raised 300 dollars for the Utah Pride center. Under the leadership of Anna Kelly, Drew Maggelet, and Kate Smith, the Pride Alliance has had a very successful year.

Left to right: Attendees of the Rainbow Stomp pose for a group picture. Mowgs Jarman and Kate Smith rock out. Sydney Tatomer, Sarah Birkett, and Candice Nkoy show off their moves on the dance floor. Alex Beaufort throws his arms in the air to celebrate the first Rainbow Stomp.

Art Club

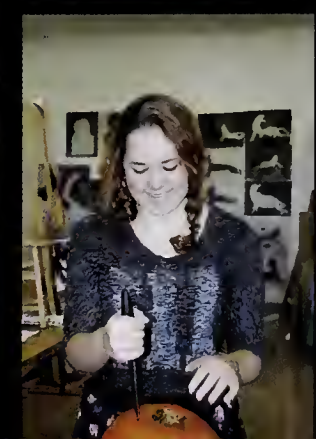

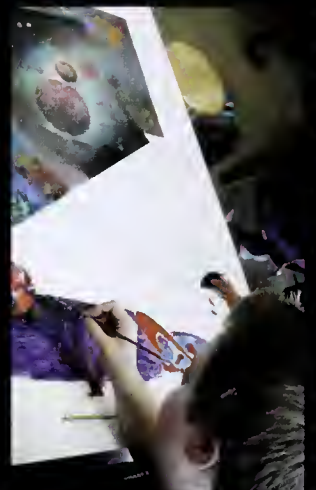

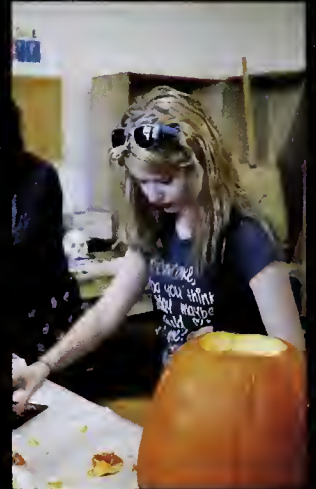

Creation station: Taylor Porges adds color to his work of art.

From back to front: Art Club members. Matt Zehner, Lucius Bynum, Ally Moore, Simone Williams, Kayla Cottingham, Abi Hill, Sophia Diehl, Ellie Kimball, Megan Chandramouli, McCall Moody, Lucy Lewis, and MiMi Nguyen.

Visual arts at Rowland Hall were alive and well this year. In class and out - students explored their creative sides under the capable supervision of Mr. Mellor. In addition to regular classes, the art club existed to create a community filled with artistic joy and friendly encounters. Anyone can join art club because the goal is to give members the opportunity to come together and create art in a outgoing environment. They hosted events like the pumpkin carving to help students explore different ways to visualize artistic expression while being surrounded by friendly faces.

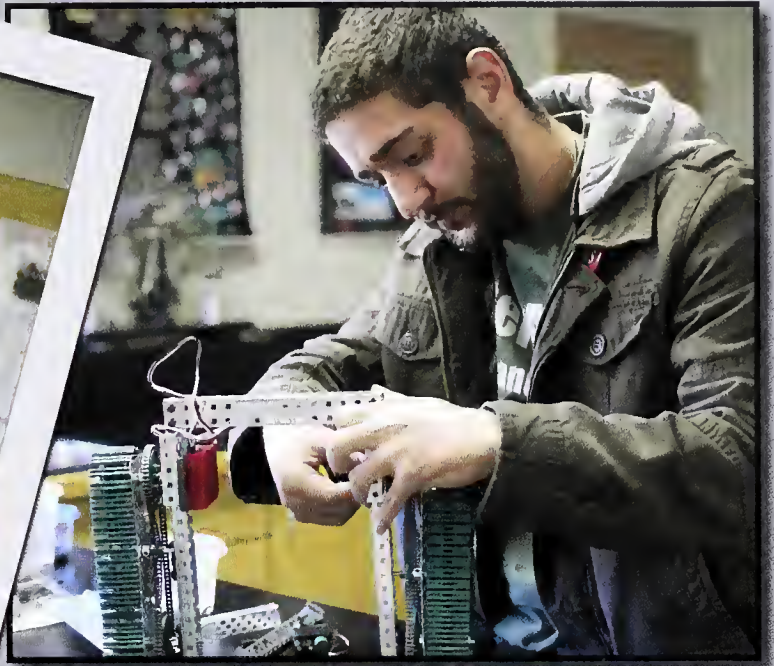

Top to bottom: Rachel Snyder and Sydney Rich help each other carve a pumpkin. Molly Hirsch chooses her tools for pumpkin carving. Sam Stark-Loyning works on a painting. Taylor Nelson adds red to his work of art. Sydney Rich happily carves away.

Robotics Club

Teamwork is key!

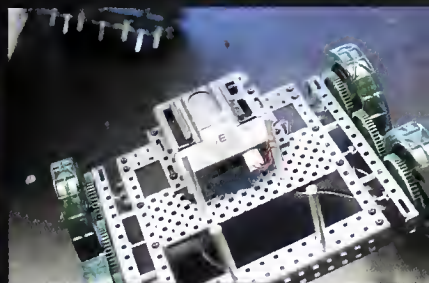

Hard at work: Maher Farrukh improves his robot in Mr. Hori's classroom.

Robotics Club gives students the opportunity to build, program, and design a robot to perform tasks by itself or with a remote. Its goal is to introduce its members to engineering and programming. The handful of students who took on Robotics this year have learned a lot from the process and the results of their hard work.

Three's a bunch: Anna Smith, Andy Gilbert, and Johnny Gilbert rock out in a Robotics Club meeting.

Left to right: Christopher Sundquist intimidates his opponents as usual. Annie White prepares for her next round. Hope DeLap poses for the camera. Caroline Nielson smiles in between rounds.

When asked about how he felt about debate, head coach Mike Shackelford said, "I love it. God help me I do love it so. I love it more than my life."

Left to right: Jacob Tucker prepares for a tournament, now that the team has gone digital, there's no need for those big boxes. Nels Ballard is excited after performing well yet again. Sarah Mian poses for the camera at the Golden Desert tournament. Sam Jackson is prepared for his next round.

Action Shot: Corinne Sugino gets caught debating.

Rowland Hall debaters travel across the country to compete. This year, they had shining moments in all events. Working together as a Policy team, Austen Van Burns and Caroline Nielson qualified for the Tournament of Champions. Two Public Forum teams also have a chance to compete at this highly selective tournament. With these impressive results as well as new rising talent from the novice team, debaters across the board have put a lot of time and energy into achieving their full potential. Congratulations on a fabulous season, debaters!

Policy Seniors: Christopher Sundquist, Hope DeLap, Annie White, Caroline Nielson, and Jacob Tucker, also known as the Policy Seniors and form the core of the Rowland Hall debate team success.

Tebowing: Ethan Arsht, Annie White, Corinne Sugino, and Christopher Sundquist prepare themselves for a tournament.

Volleyball

"The impressive thing about coal, a seemingly dismal and dusty rock, is how it shines as a diamond under pressure."

- Shelby Matsumura

Team spirit: Sydney Tatomer, Ikwo Frank, Shelby Matsumura, Lainey Epperson, Maddie Hansen, Shannon Balogh, Kiersten Cutler, Nikita Abraham, Abeni Czajkowski, Megan Scaglione, Marissa Eng, and Eileen Hopt show off their team spirit with a giant roar!

Top to bottom: Sydney Tatomer is joined by her parents at senior night. Abeni Czajkowski prepares to block. Lainey Epperson has her game face on. Sydney Tatomer keeps her eye on the ball. Abeni Czajkowski crouches low to hit the ball.

The Rowland Hall volleyball team returned for yet another year of exciting performances. Sydney Tatomer, Kiersten Cutler, and Shelby Matsumura led the varsity team to 17 wins this season. Most impressive was their win against South Summit, a victory that has not been seen in ten years! Although full of incredible wins, the season also faced losses. During the Utah state tournament, the volleyball team played Waterford, losing what turned out to be an extremely close game, ending up on "the short end of the stick." However, all of the girls worked extremely hard, and it truly showed. The Rowland Hall volleyball team, along with coaches Kathy Howa and Kendra Tomsic, had a great season and has a bright future ahead of them!

Sweet Victory!

*Victory against South Summit- the first time in ten years!
14-4 in pre-season
3-5 during the Region 14 play
Placed in the top ten at State!*

Spike: Shelby Matsumura leaps to spike the ball over the net while her teammates Ikwo Frank and Kiersten Cutler rush to assist.

Roar: Ikwo Frank, Shelby Matsumura, Maddy Helier, Marisa Eng, Sydney Tatomer, and Eileen Hopf huddle for a team cheer.

Playing hard: Megan Scaglione hits the ball with ferocious effort.

Cross-Country

"Our young athletes return and write their names boldly—feeling proud and confident of their past efforts—proclaiming: 'I am still passionate about my running, or my playing—in all those things I choose to give my all to.'"

— Mark Oftedal, Head Cross-Country Coach

Top to bottom: Reid Silverman smiles for the camera after taking 25th place in State. Seniors Claire Friedman and Maddie Strait join together to cross the finish line. Andy and Johnny Gilbert race each other during practice. Senior Nels Ballard contemplates his race. Kellyn Maves, senior and 16th place State title holder, proudly displays the Region trophy.

2011 marked a banner year in the lives of the Rowland Hall cross-country team. The dedicated team showed up to train for victory on bleary-eyed summer mornings. Not only did both the boys' and girls' varsity and JV teams sweep the Region Championships, but the girls won the State Championship for the first time since 1993, the boys took second place, and Ryan Westermann and Emily Sundquist each took individual second places. Andy Gilbert, a senior and region champion, says: "This team has been one of the most fun I have ever been on. The friends that I have made are awesome! We are definitely very lucky; that's why I want to keep on running. I'm not ready to let it go yet."

The girls' tennis team once again enjoyed a successful season under the leadership of captains Caroline Nielsen, Christine Livsey, and Sarah Mian. The team won the Utah 2A Region Championship and took second place at the Utah 2A State Championship. The varsity team consisted of Madeline Foley, Kaitlin Ramsey, Scout Swenson, Caroline Nielsen, Christine Livsey, Sage Sterrett, and Sarah Mian. Despite the loss of three seniors, expectations will be high as the girls attempt to capture the state title again next season!

Candle and Carol

Happy Holidays!

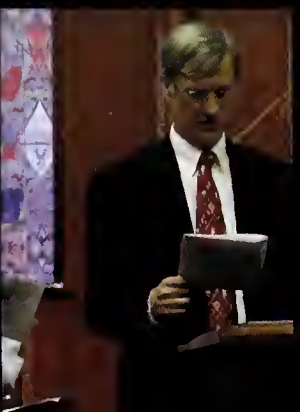

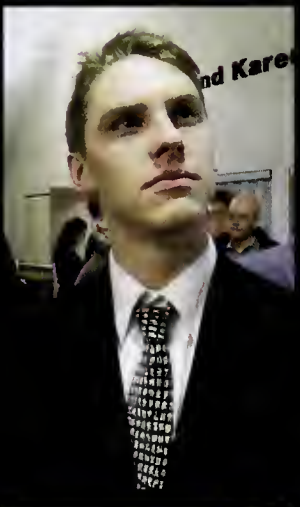

A celebration: Anna Reganis, Ross Cooper, Mr. Hayes, Liza Badenhausen, and Emily Ward at the after-party.

After-party: Choir members Richard Peterson, Matteo Brunelli, and Alex Beaufort celebrate a job well done.

Candle and Carol is Rowland Hall's oldest school tradition. This year, however, the service was held at the First Baptist Church for the first time. The choir and orchestra performed several holiday songs and students read from the gospel. Lastly, Trace Browning gave a sermon about seeing the world in new ways. Everyone stayed for the after party to socialize while eating cookies and punch. For all who attended, Candle and Carol was a memorable experience.

Top to bottom: Lee Thomsen reminds all attendants of the history of Candle and Carol. Monet Nielson and Julia Goldman stretch their legs. Cameron Galt contemplates Trace's sermon. Anna Kelly and Reed Esparza party it up! Mr. Sparrow begins the ceremony with an engaging speech.

Right: Ethan Fedor brings food into the school for the giveaway.

Giveaways

"The people who come to the give-aways to receive food are so grateful to the volunteers. I too am so thankful to all of the Spanish students, the teachers, and the Rowland Hall families and alumni who come each year to help. These events represent the best in our community—people giving their time to help others live with dignity.

Giving on Thanksgiving

Left to right: Abi Hill celebrates Christmas cheer while bringing food into the cafeteria for those in need. Matthew Zehner and Afras Sial carry heavy boxes into the lunchroom. Lachlan Murphy works on sorting the food for the Christmas Giveaway. Carson Lyness interviews people in line at the Indian Walk-in Center.

Helping hands: The Christmas giveaway volunteers help transfer food into the lunchroom.

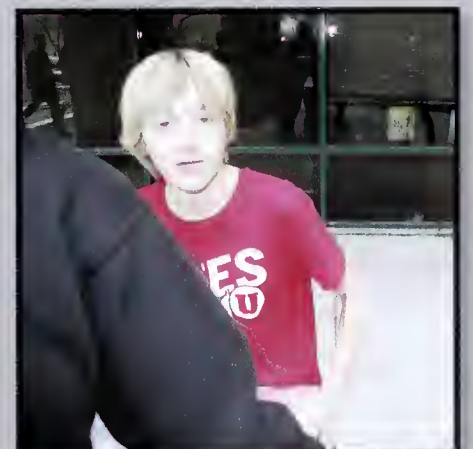

This year's Thanksgiving and Christmas giveaways were coordinated by junior Reed Esparza. About 35 to 40 RH students volunteered at the Thanksgiving giveaway. Held at the Indian Walk-In Center, the line of people in need continued for two blocks. On the other hand, the Christmas Giveaway was held at the school. About 160 Rowland Hall volunteers helped to feed 1365 people. Overall, the school organized giveaways this year were a great success!

Thumbs up: Reed Esparza, the organizer of both the Thanksgiving and Christmas Giveaways, keeps track of the deliveries on her computer.

Good stuff: Freshman Matthew Zehner carries food down to the school cafeteria.

Go Utes!: Trevor Falls passes food into the commons for the Thanksgiving giveaway.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Cast A roster: Jamen Christensen, Sage Atkinson-Beckwith, McKarah Greyfous, Chelsea Klein, Mae Rodgers, Jaden Lessnick, Drew Chortkoff, Adie Christiansen, Stephanie Nolan, Symon Braun Freck, Andrew Oeneris, Olivia Filion, Lila Thulin, Annie Cox, Molly Levine, Emily DiBella, and Grace Geis.

Fighting for love

This years winter play was A Midsummer Night's Dream. Two different versions of the play were performed: one set in the Dickensian era and the other in the Elizabethan era. Despite the similar scripts, the sets, costumes, and characters differed in the two plays. The Dickensian version was set in an English forest, and the Elizabethan in an Athenian garden. Both the casts worked diligently with the middle school theater group to produce refreshing and exhilarating takes on the famous Shakespeare play.

Cast B roster: Jamen Christensen, Teddy Janes, Elissa Collins, Gabriela Rosenada, Anna Shott, Alexandra O'Brien, Louis Fisher, Madi Hall, Caity Kwun, Keaton Farrell, Guthrie Burnett, Henry Gilbert, Abby Thomsen, Madeleine Baneth, Oaphne Michie, and Maggie Cannon Match.

Duel in the Pool

Champions!

One giant leap: Scott Treiman takes a flying leap for the boys' tennis team.

Above: Will Badenhausen prepares to race for the boys' baseball team.

This year was the first annual Duel in the Pool, a unique competition hosted by the swim team at their Pack the Bleachers event. During halftime, six teams - girls' basketball, boys' baseball, girls' golf, volleyball, cross-country, and boys' tennis - went head to head in a four-man relay, dressed in their team uniforms. Fans of every sport came out to cheer the teams to victory. Cross-country emerged victorious with girls' basketball as a close second. After the enormous success, expect to see the Rowland Hall teams battle at Duel in the Pool next year!

Top to bottom: Steph Schott gets ready to swim. Doug Labov turns on the wall, determined to win. Kiersten Cutler powers through the water. Charly Rech flies off the block. Shelby Matsumura displays team spirit as she cheers her team on.

Hugs all around: K.J. Tua'one is ready to embrace Winter Formal.

Winter Formal

"This year's winter formal was the best dance out of my four years in the Upper School."
-Julia Bodson

Look good and smile pretty: Sydney Maves, Abeni Czajkowski, Katie Hayashi, and Shelby Matsumura practice their smiles for their portraits.

We're all in this together: The attendees of Winter Formal just can't stay down.

This year's Winter Formal was a dance to remember. Held at the Depot, a venue next to the Gateway, the theme was "city lights," perfect for the downtown setting. Student Council announced the dance at morning meeting with a glow in the dark performance and free glow sticks, something that wowed the crowd. At the dance, the large turnout and lots of enthusiasm made for a fantastic time.

Four girls and a camera: Jessica Sterrett, Gabrielle Wolcott, Sarah Birkett, and Jessica Dullanty show off their pearly whites before heading to the dance floor.

Having a good time: Richard Petersen demonstrates his approval of Winter Formal.

Watchful eye: Mr. Mellor vainly looks for artistic inspiration on the dance floor.

Band

"I love playing with the band!"

Zach Carlisle

4th period band: Matt Jackson, Nick Miller, Chase Kroesche, Emily Ward, Micah Willis, Kapil Sharma, Jack Veverka, Hazel Staten, Mr. Jackson, Charly Rech, and Guthrie Burnett.

3rd-period band: Corrie Harris, Sonia Grunwald, Nate Carlisle, Chase Pope, Doug Labov, Mr. Jackson, Matt Jackson, Aidan Rasmussen, Temoc Renteria, Matt Browning, Ryan Westermann, and Maci DeBlanc.

The Upper School band has achieved much this year. Its members performed their work at several fabulous concerts and showed their support for other school teams by performing at the halftimes of sports games. Many of the band's talented members excelled at the region concert in early February, where they played great! Nice work!

Playing a solo!

Choir and Orchestra

Master vocalist.

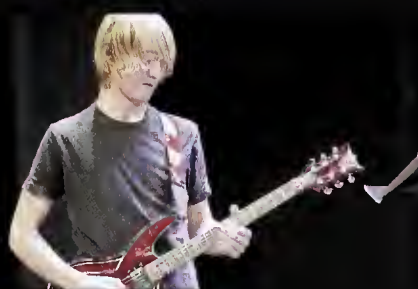

The sound of perfection: Kyleene Johnson plays her violin.

Harmony in numbers: Sonia Rubinfeld, Lucius Bynum, Lauren Utz, Kiersten Cutler, Sophia Diehl, Adria Lam, Monet Nielson, and Julia Goldman harmonize while singing "The Hallelujah Chorus."

The choir and orchestra have striven for perfection in their many performances this year. Performing alongside the Wasatch Community Symphony, at Mayor Ralph Becker's National AIDS Day Service, on Heber Valley Railroad's North Pole Express, and at the annual Hobocaust Remembrance Ceremony at the State Capitol Building, Rowland Hall's choir and orchestra ensembles have had a fabulous year. Congratulations!

Student Council

Here comes Santa: Sara Mann, Ariel Feola, Claire Friedman, Andrew Dischmann, Santa Claus, Thomas the Elf, and Julia Bodson sing carols and pass out candy grams to French class.

Food Delivered!

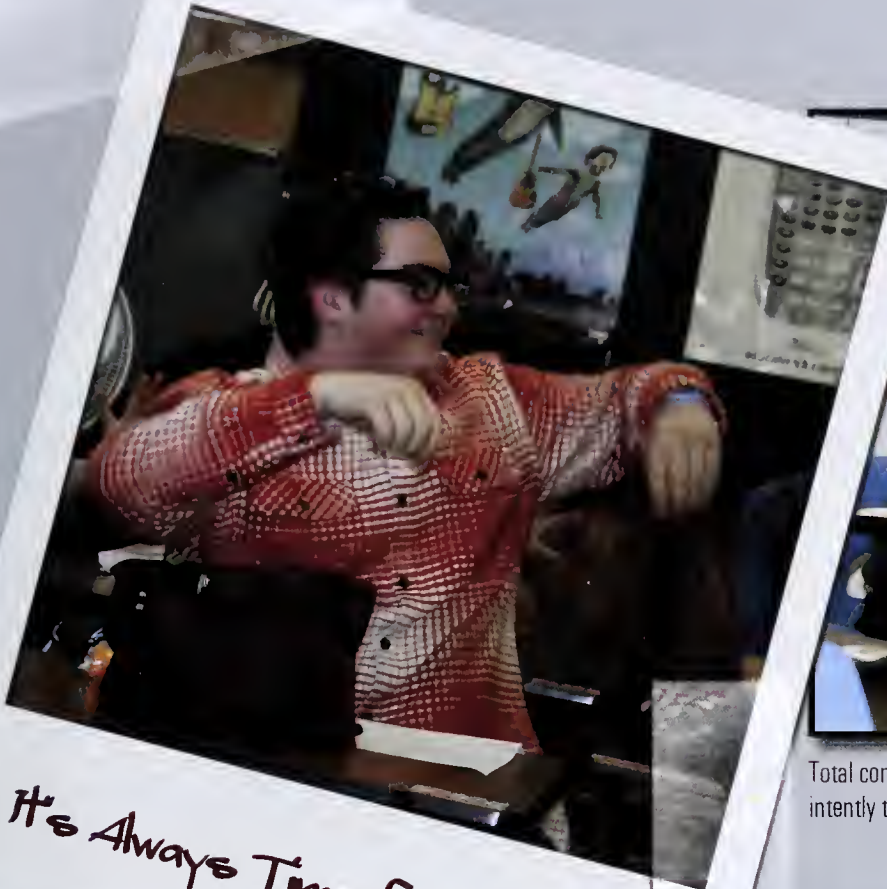

The Student Council continues to represent the student body. They organize morning meetings and stamps, arrange for speakers to come to the school, and run the annual canned food drive. Additionally, their various dances and themes for Spirit Week as well as competitions for Battle of the Classes have become traditions at Rowland Hall. This year's tight-knit and efficient council was led by student body president Will Badenhause. Thanks for all you do, StuCol!

Left to right: Kyleene Johnson and Parker Bushnell carry out heavy boxes for the canned food drive. Claire Friedman, Will Badenhause, Julia Bodson, Parker Bushnell, Andy Gilbert, and Sophie Janes represent some of the seniors in Student Council. Charis Benjamin smiles as she carries bags for the canned food drive. Liz Paige leads a meeting for the Student Council.

Quiz Bowl

It's Always Time for Quizbowl.

Total concentration: Matthew Zubair, Ethan Fedor, and Anya Tchoupakov listen intently to practice trivia questions.

The whole team: Katherine Edgely, Sam Ball, Jonathan Zubair, Austen Van Burns, Zach Deneris, Afras Sial, Aaron Friedman, Matt Bernstein, Benjamin Schloesser, Matthew Zubair, Elliott Kovnak, Mr. Mond, Lachlan Murphy, Anya Tchoupakov, and Ethan Fedor make up the Quizbowl Club.

Introduced to Rowland Hall last year, the Quiz Bowl Club has become one of the largest active clubs. Quizbowl is a game in which a team needs to answer random trivia questions in order to earn a certain number of points. The questions cover every topic imaginable. Rowland Hall's Quizbowl team meets once per month to answer practice trivia questions. Congratulations to Rowland Hall's Quizbowl team, placing second in the Salt Lake County tournament!

Photo Club

Work it! Matt Zehner and Tyler Labov take pictures at Winter Formal.

In its first year at Rowland Hall, Photo Club has been a great success. Led by Blake Shott and Hank Shipman, the club photographed students at dances throughout the year. By selling their photos, the Photo Club earned money, which was spent on their service project—photographing refugee families at the International Rescue Committee. Thank you for all of your hard work!

Who the boss(es)? The capable co-presidents, Hank Shipman and Blake Shott.

Left to right: Sophia Diehl, Abi Hill, and Megan Chandramouli dress up for the Halloween stomp. Will Badenhausen and Johnny Gilbert "Tebow" while Rainy Paul and Anna Smith pose for the camera. Claire Friedman, Carson Lyness, and Maddie Strait look stunning at Winters. Jess Sterrett, Lilly Binns, and Elissa Collins show off their fabulous costumes.

Make Club

3D Printing!

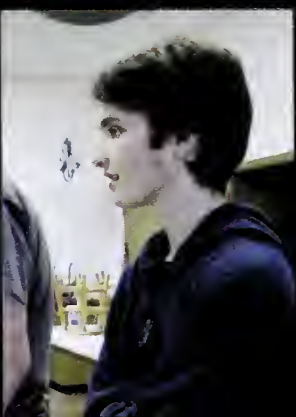

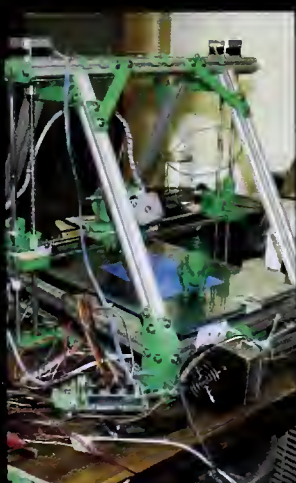

Working hard: Shabir Aminzada considers which piece would work best.

Helping hands: Dan Mitchell and Zach Deneris work together to build a 3D printer.

The Make Club has worked throughout the year to learn the skills necessary to build a 3D printer. Led by student Austen Van Burns and teacher Dan Mitchell, the Make Club has had an extremely successful year. Congratulations!

Top to bottom: Cameron Galt uses heavy machinery to help build the 3D printer. Alex and Bilal from the Pocket Factory visit the school to show the club members what an actual 3D printer looks like. Austen Van Burns takes a break from hard work. The 3D printer in action making a 3D lion. Tyler Labov listens intently to the speaker to learn more about the printer.

Spanish Club

Front to back: Carson Lyness, Cari Sanyer, Sarah Mian, Jordan Ruga, Chris Sundquist, Ryan Collier, Annie White, Jena Glazier, Danelle Divine, Anna Smith, Julia Bodson, Nells Ballard, Micah Willis, Hope DeLap, Andrew Deneris, Maher Farrukh, Señor Burnett, and Rachel Snyder.

¡Hola! from the Spanish Club. This year the Spanish Club had a party to celebrate The Day of the Dead or, in Spanish, El Día de los Muertos. During the party, they made Day of the Dead bread, a common food item found on the holiday. It is tradition to leave bread on the graves of loved ones who have passed away as an offering. ¡Hasta el próximo año!

Piñatas!

Knitting Club

Our Leader

A new club this year, the Knitting Club came together to share their love for knitting. Everything that they made, from blankets to clothing, was donated to the Poore Medical Clinic.

Speedball

Off to the races: Carter Dowd, Lauren Samuels, and Andrew Kircher chase down a loose ball.

Attack!

The Speedball Club is new to Rowland Hall this year. Rowmarkers often play speedball when they are training for the season in the summer and fall. It is a combination of touch football, soccer, and rugby. Players on two teams pass and kick the ball down the field, attempting to knock down a large wicket while avoiding tags from the other team. The club has had a successful first year, marked by its many members and crazy games.

Publications

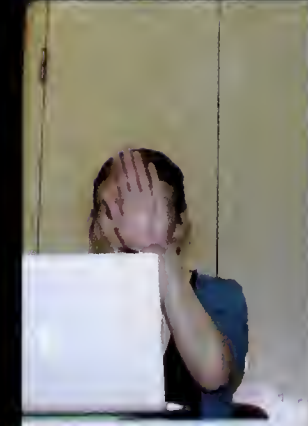

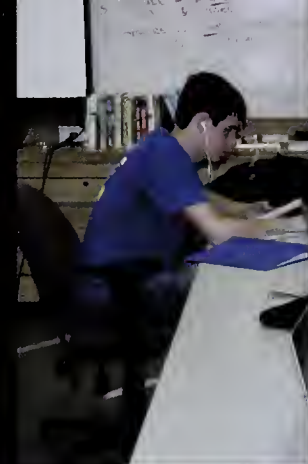

Seniors: Andy Gilbert, Christine Livsey, and Scott Treiman compete for the couch.

Yearbook staff: Andy Gilbert, Connor Nelson, Richard Peterson, Christine Livsey, Scott Treiman, Ross Cooper, Ally Moore, Georgia Larsen, Jessie Barker, Carlyn Ausbeck, and Mr. Smith.

The Publications staff is responsible for designing and creating both the Rowland Hall Gazette and the Hallmark, our Yearbook. Throughout the year, the Publications staff has photographed and documented Rowland Hall events. Their dedication and hard work make these much anticipated publications possible. Thank you!

Top to bottom: Richard Peterson hard at work on his article for the next deadline. Ally Moore adds the finishing touches to a yearbook page. Jessica Barker and Georgia Larsen smile in class. Whenever Mr. Smith makes a shot like this, it's a day off from Publications. Due to the popularity of the newspaper, Dr. Johnson tries to avoid photographers.

PAWW, WIJ & XX

Girl power!

Standing up for a good cause: Danelle Devine, Stephanie Schott, Silvia Padilla, Adria Lam, Sonia Grunwald, Monet Nielson, Kienna Stephens, Olivia Filion and Emily Nicoloff show off their new club shirts.

Women unite: Ariel Feola, Lauren Rasich, Alyssa Cole, Madeline Brague, Emma Reuling, and Hannah Lampson gather at lunch to talk about the XX Crew.

PAWW, Women in Jeopardy, and the XX Crew have worked throughout the year to raise awareness for issues in the greater Salt Lake community. PAWW—a club focusing on the safety of animals—has spent numerous hours helping the animals at the Utah Animal Shelter. The Women in Jeopardy club, new to Rowland Hall this year, has held fundraisers to raise awareness for domestic violence. Lastly, the XX Crew has continued its mission to boost the confidence of women by spending time with middle school girls every month. Thank you for all that you do for our community!

Creative Writing

To My Pet Rock

by Nicky Anna Kelly

We stare through blooded pavement, like glass doors,
And a Chinese woman falls in the middle of the street.

In 1985, in New York City, we look past her.
We let rock make her—we don't stop.

She takes to her feet, looks around the red
Crosswalk lines and a hotel square. She curbs

Herself during a red light, when the taxicabs
Stop dodging around her, cursing her in Italian.

In 2003, in Louisiana, a man pulls out a cigarette
And kicks his girl into the street, he yells, loud,

In Italian, and she lies there, on gapped pavement,
Staring at me, and in Louisiana, in 2003, I stop.

Frost and Flame

by Claire Friedman

I.

Bathe me in frozen silence,
Fragile lashes slowed with crystal,
And don't watch as I shatter.
Hold tightly the glassy statues,
Their beating hearts blue
With age and cold and loss,
Icicle anatomies that contort
And weep for the warm,
My body still whole.

II.

Lick the fingers and pinch my burn,
Taste the bubble, the blister,
And rejoice.
Devour me into pure light,
Pure being,
With melting limbs
Burning metallic against my cheeks,
The sparks and slivers
Scorched across my face.

Authors in Action

The authors of Lit Mag and Creative Writing understand that interesting experiences foster good writing and broaden the mind. From tasting different foods to visiting gardens, the writers draw upon the emotions they feel to enhance their writing. The class regularly invites visiting authors to discuss their writing process that the young writers in turn strive to emulate. Writing fiction and non-fiction, the group has earned several awards as well as recognition within the greater Salt Lake community. "They aspire to jump to those heights," says Mr. Long. "And you'd be surprised how often they do."

Student Art

This year's AP Art class consists of seniors, who, over the course of an entire year, created masterful pieces of artwork to display in their college portfolios. At the close of the year, all the hard work and talent was showcased at the AP Art show. But enough about the class; let's let the art speak for itself.

Ballerinas: Lila Thulin, Hannah Riter, and Eleanor Layfield display their ballet skills.

Dance Company

Phantasmagoria: Our dreams are actually reality and our waking time is merely a snapshot of human potential...

Attack: Christine Livsey and MiMi Nguyen dance in the senior piece.

Left to right: Hollis Mills, Brighton Moreton, and Charis Benjamin perform. Micha Hori, Christine Livsey, and Elissa Collins express themselves. Rainy Paul, Chelsea Klein, Micha Hori, McCall Moody, Christine Livsey, MiMi Nguyen, Charis Benjamin, and Breeanne Saxton perform the senior piece. Bailey Carver demonstrates her miming skills to the audience.

Teamwork: Dance II and III perform a bold and energetic piece.

Dance is a form of expression. This year, Rowland Hall's Dance Company performed "Phantasmagoria," a concert based on dreams. The concert included dances which demonstrated what it means to face fear, weakness, and happiness. Featured in Phantasmagoria were nine seniors, all of whom will be greatly missed! Congratulations, Dance Company, on a wonderful performance!

Caged: Seniors McCall Moody, MiMi Nguyen, Christine Livsey, Ellie Kimball, Charis Benjamin, Chelsea Klein, Micha Hori, Breeanne Saxton, and Rainy Paul strive to escape the cage in the senior piece, "Caged."

Power: Elissa Collins, Micha Hori, Breeanne Saxton, and MiMi Nguyen demonstrate their strength.

Swimming

"Swim now. Breathe later."

Swim Team 2011-2012: Rainy Paul, Sydney Rich, Julia Bodson, Leigh Hunt, Ally Larcom, Ally Moore, Dalton Provost, Lachlan Murphy, Jason Chang, and Matthew Zehner.

Swimming may be the smallest Rowland Hall sports team, but it manages to succeed nevertheless! The swim season spans two trimesters during which the team trains to qualify for individual State times and to dominate their races. Through dedication and excellent coaching from Sara Watchorn and Mark Grey, the swimmers finished the year with a bang. The girls' team posted amazing times in their races, placing tenth overall in the State Championship Meet. Though they had to say farewell to three fabulous seniors, the swim team is looking ahead to next year to train harder and faster. Congratulations on a great season!

STATE RESULTS:

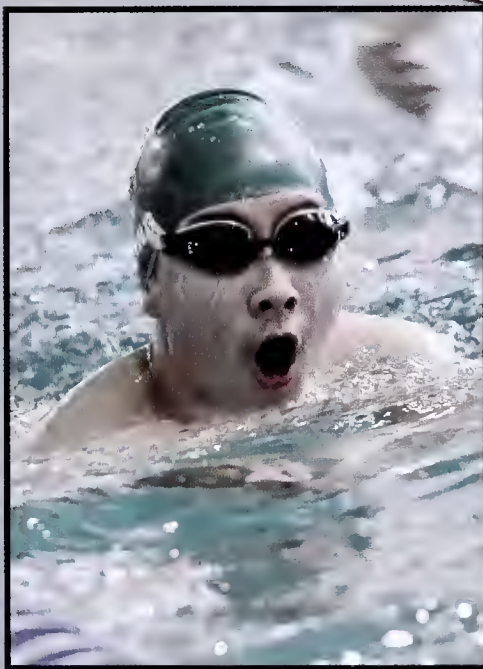

Girls' Team 10th overall
 Girls' 200 Medley Relay 10th
 Girls' 200 Freestyle Relay 8th
 Girls' 400 Freestyle Relay 13th
 Rainy Paul- 13th (200 IM) and 7th (100 Butterfly)
 Sydney Rich- 20th (100 Backstroke)
 Leigh Hunt- 12th (100 Butterfly)
 Ally Moore- 15th (100 Butterfly) and 22nd (500 Freestyle)
 Lachlan Murphy- 20th (200 IM) and 19th (100 Freestyle)

We're on our way!

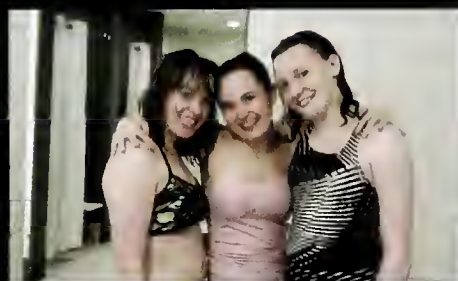

Relax: Rainy Paul, Lachlan Murphy, Jason Chang, Dalton Provost, Ally Moore, and Sydney Rich get a chance to relax after their state competition.

Breathe: Jason Chang gasps for air during the home meet.

Dramatic gophers: Rainy Paul and Lachlan Murphy act dramatic after State.

Left to right: Rainy Paul prepares to race! Matthew Zehner and Jason Chang rest before their races. The state 200 medley team - Sydney Rich, Rainy Paul, Ally Moore, and Leigh Hunt - take time to pose for a picture. Julia Bodson, Leigh Hunt, and Ally Larcom pose for a picture on the last day of practice. Jason Chang, Dalton Provost, Lachlan Murphy, and Matthew Zehner-the boys' team- await their next races.

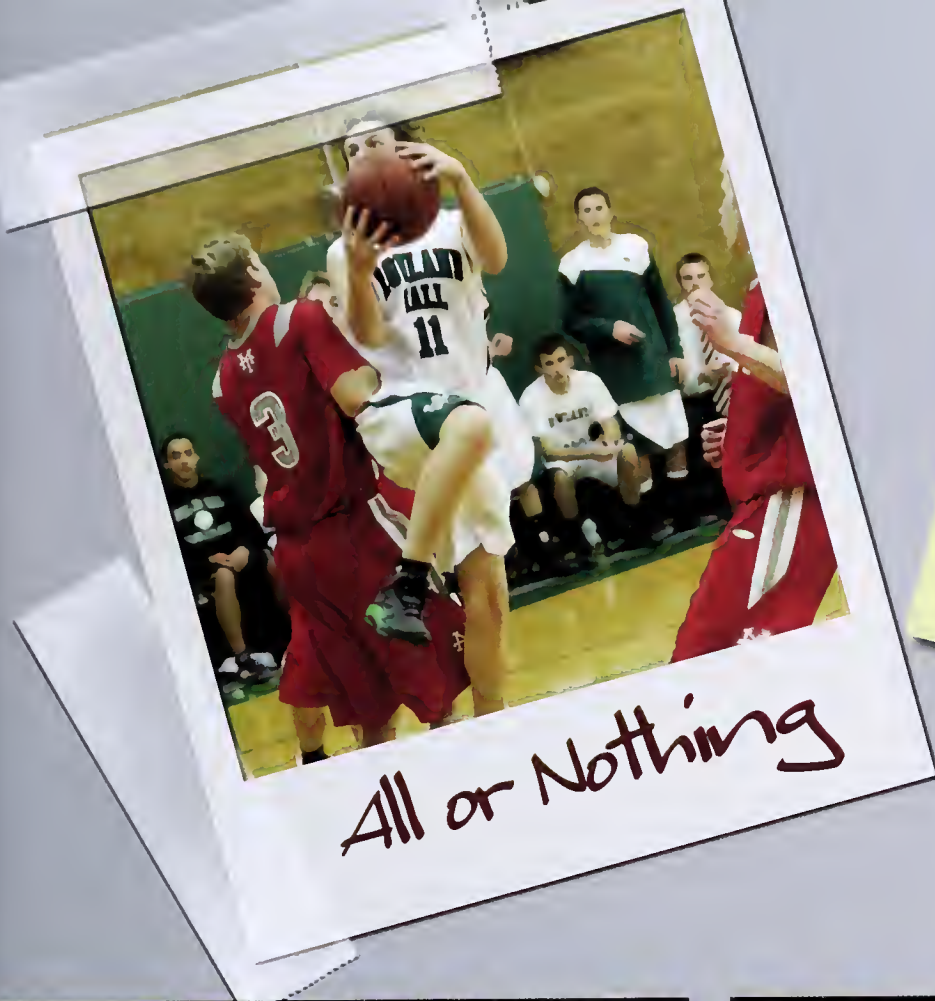

Boys' Basketball

Top to bottom: Chris Nkoy speeds down the court. Caleb Chodosh dribbles, searching for someone to pass to. Malik Adams goes for the layup. Chris Nkoy leaps to make a basket. Zeke Bradley keeps the ball away from a defender.

Rowland Hall's 2011-2012 boys' basketball team had an outstanding season. Led by junior captain Wesley Austin, the boys' basketball team fought their way into the playoffs in February. Despite several injuries, the team played well throughout the season. Great job, boys' basketball!

STATS:
 Wesley Austin: All-Region
 Leading Scorer: 16 ppg
 Leading Rebounder: 11 rpg
 Leading Blocker: 3 bpg
 Caleb Chodosh: All-Region
 Leading 3pt Shooter: 20 total
 2nd Leading Scorer: 8.5 ppg

Girls' Basketball

"We beat Waterford. Nuff said!" ~Sophie Janes

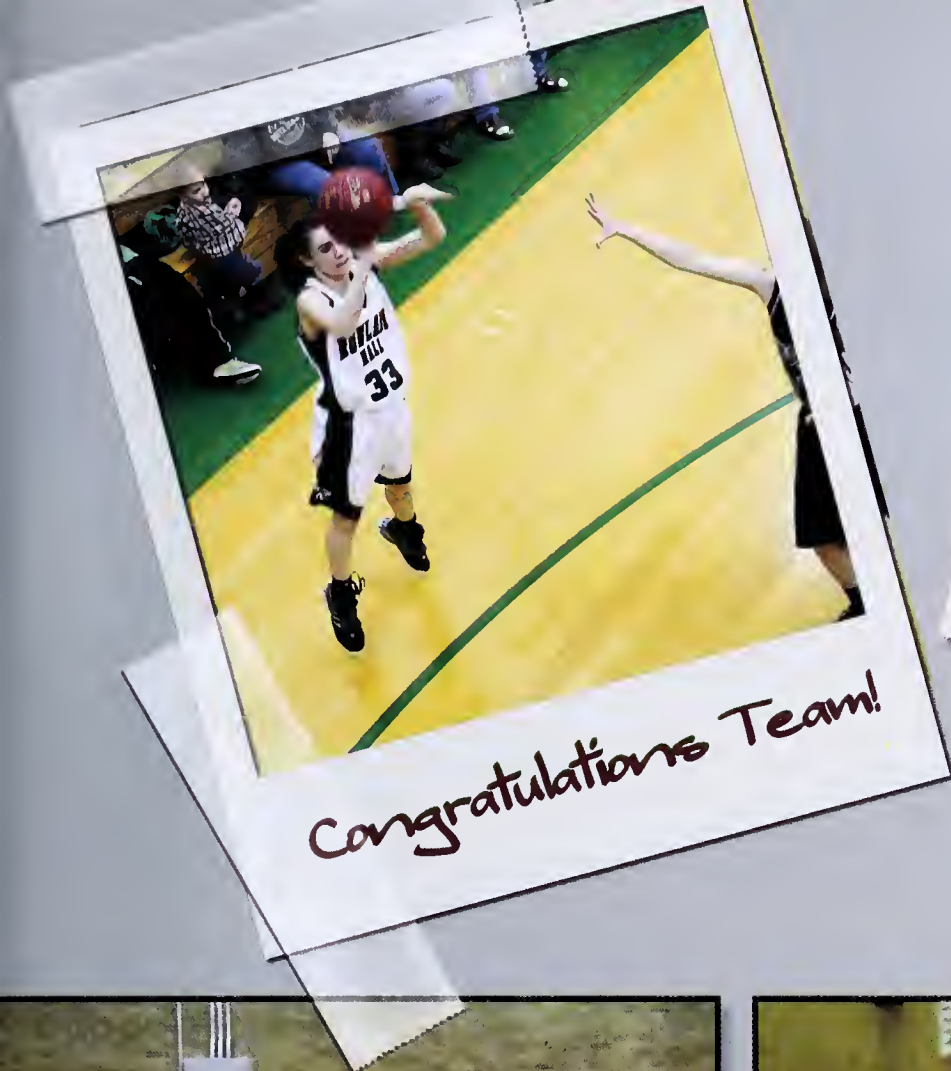

2012 Girls' Basketball Team: Coach Bill Tatomer, Danita Arguello, Tianxing Jin, Anna Reganis, Maddie Hansen, Grace Veghte, Alyssa Cole, Lauren Rasich, Candice Nkoy, Ji Eun You, Sage Sterrett, Whitney Tatomer, Jess Sterrett, Kienna Stephens, Shelby Matsumura, Meagan Hall, Abeni Czajkowski, Mallory Metz, Noelani Blueford, Anna Smith, Marisa Eng, Cari Sanyer, and Sophie Janes.

Top to bottom: Roary, the school mascot, supports the girls' team. Cari Sanyer takes a floater. Noelani Blueford looks to cut. Candice Nkoy drives the lane. Meagan Hall puts up a shot in the paint.

The girls' basketball had a tremendous season. The team opened on a 6-0 run that included an overtime win and another win on a 3 point buzzer beat by Marisa Eng. Throughout the season, the girls' team struggled with injuries. However, because of quality minutes and points made by younger players, the girls continued to play competitively, ensuring their place as a region contender for next year. Congratulations on a fantastic season!

An old Soul comes into the world a little early,
 but welcomed with open arms.
 Life begins with love salt sprinkled on everything
 Waffles, cereal, and Birthday cakes. The originator
 Of this wonderful flavor leaves the earth too soon and the Brightside falls into place. The love salt is not forgotten but
 Is sprinkled by the one left behind.
 The Brightside is like a Carnival, visited through out the years
 When struggles arise turning them into splashes of hope and Color.

Life is to be lived with sprinkles of love salt scattering like leaves
 That cover the ground in fall. Full of past memories but Promising a future as exciting as The Brightside.
 Live the flags whisper as they flutter on the tent. LIVE

We love you! -Mom, Ross, Eve, Jenny and Brooke

There are these two young fish swimming along and they happen to meet an older fish swimming the other way, who nods at them and says "Morning, boys. How's the water?" And the two young fish swim on for a bit, and then eventually one of them looks over at the other and goes "What the hell is water?"

Farewell, Bill Baxter and Karen Hyde

Nice bangs! It's all smiles for Karen for her graduation photo.

We would like to thank Karen Hyde and Bill Baxter for their years at Rowland Hall. Bill Baxter has taught for a total of 37 years, eleven of which have been here at Rowland Hall. He is looking forward to moving from teaching students to teaching teachers in his new role as a trainer for the National Association of Independent Schools. Karen leaves us after 28 years of service in the Admissions office. We will miss them both!

Left to right: Karen and her kids, Jenny and Justin. Bill Baxter enjoying the sun while skiing. Karen and her new grandson, Will. A carefree Bill as a young child.

Spring Trimester

Top to bottom: Mr. Baxter enjoys his surprise birthday card while Tyler Labov enjoys the surprise birthday cake. Scout Swenson and Anya Tchoupakov write amid some (ancient) ruins at Gilgal Gardens. Maher Farrukh can't take any requests, he's too busy putting the Interact Benefit Dinner together. Chelsea Klein, Rainy Paul, Bree Saxton, and Sophie Hochhauser are all for a senior victory for Battle of the Classes. Chris Fanning shows off his skill with a baseball bat.

Spring Events

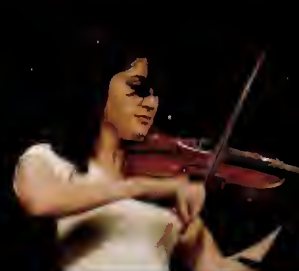

I'm in the band: Micah Willis, Nick Miller, Chase Kroesche and Emily Ward blow the crowd away with jazz during morning meeting.

The perfect couple: In a unprecedented manner, Ethan Fedor asks Shelby Matsumura to prom, who reponds in an equally unusual way.

Reaching out: Scout Swenson performs an original modern dance number by Micha Hori at morning meeting.

Left to right: Stephanie Schott cleans up at the Interact Benefit Dinner. Liza Badenhauseen needs some time to make up her mind about Ethiopian cuisine. Ethan Arshi deliberates whether or not to buy a tamale at the Spanish club's tamale sale. Kyleene Johnson, master of the violin.

Swing for Life

Swing for Life Foundation Patient Education

Swing on!

The Swing for Life room: Maddie Hansen, Heather Ernst, Jessie Dullanty, Sonia Grunwald, Lilly Binns, Eileen Hopf, Olivia Pecora, Lainey Epperson, Zoe Walton, Madeline Helier, Kiersten Cutler, Shelby Matsumura, Lauren Carpenter, Kendra Tomsic, Kathy Howa, Gabby Wolcott, Liza Badenhausen, Sydney Tatomer, Megan Scaglione, Abeni Czajkowski, Marisa Eng.

The volleyball team has fun at the Pink Game: Top to Bottom: Sydney Tatomer, Ikwo Frank, Shannen Balogh, Maddie Hansen. Second Row: Eileen Hopf, Zoe Walton, Olivia Pecora, Monet Nielsen, Sonia Grunwald, Candice Nkoy, Lilly Binns, Madeline Helier, Jessie Dullanty, Gabby Wolcott, Kaitlyn Jenkins, Shelby Matsumura.

Swing for Life is a nonprofit organization founded by coach Kathy Howa to raise money for the Huntsman Cancer Institute to fight breast cancer. Throughout the school year, coach Howa organizes events to raise funds and to educate the public about breast cancer, including "pink"-themed sports games and an overnight walk-a-thon. This year's annual Swing for Life softball tournament was a success once again, attracting several schools all across the state. This October, the Huntsman Cancer Institute named its patient education room after the Swing for Life organization, which has donated over $860,000 to support breast cancer research. Swing for Life is the epitome of how Rowland Hall seeks to benefit the community. We thank coach Howa for all her hard work!

Battle of the Classes

No triskaidecaphobes here: Shelby Matsumura and Katie Hayashi show their class spirit.

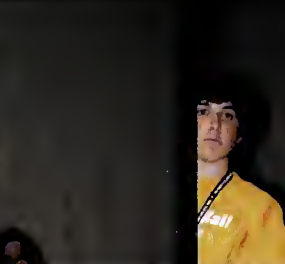

The circle of life

This year's Battle of the Classes was full of exciting competition and intense class spirit. The events were flag football, knockout, Guitar Hero, and the ever popular music video and lip sync. The senior class triumphed in flag football. The juniors' music video narrowly beat out the seniors' due to an highly controversial bonus point from Mr. Thomsen. Sophomore Zeryab Sial won the knockout event, making the contest an incredibly close race between the senior, junior, and sophomore classes. Senior Chase Kraeche easily won Guitar Hero and the seniors' lip sync mash up gave them a victory once again. On Friday evening, the school gathered to celebrate of the final stamp of the year. Final Scores: Seniors - 85 points, Juniors 75 points, Sophomores 60 points, Freshmen 30 points.

Eye on the ball: Johnny Bebbington prepares himself for his shot as Wesley Austin readies himself for his turn to play knockout.

Left to right: Aaron Wadley passionately lip-syncs while Thomas Bebbington provides backup dance moves. Doug and Tyler Labov party like rockstars at the Battle of the Classes Stomp. Candice Nkoy leads a group of freshmen in their class's lip-sync. Will Badenhause and Lucy Lewis lead the rest of the seniors in their concluding lip-sync number.

Other Sports

Jessie Barker clearing up!!

Hockey Chic: Mowgs Jarman passes the puck to a teammate.

Pedal Faster: Ethan Fedor races cyclecross.

As you can see, the students at Rowland Hall are not only exceptional academically, they excel in sports as well. These individuals are just a small percent of all the students who accomplish amazing things in sports outside of school. These athletes have to find a balance between school, friends and the extracurricular activities.

Left to right: Jess Sterrett flips into first place. Chris Fedor practices on his horse T-Bone. Perry Martin shreds through the powder. Sophie Janes battles it out playing lacrosse.

Baseball

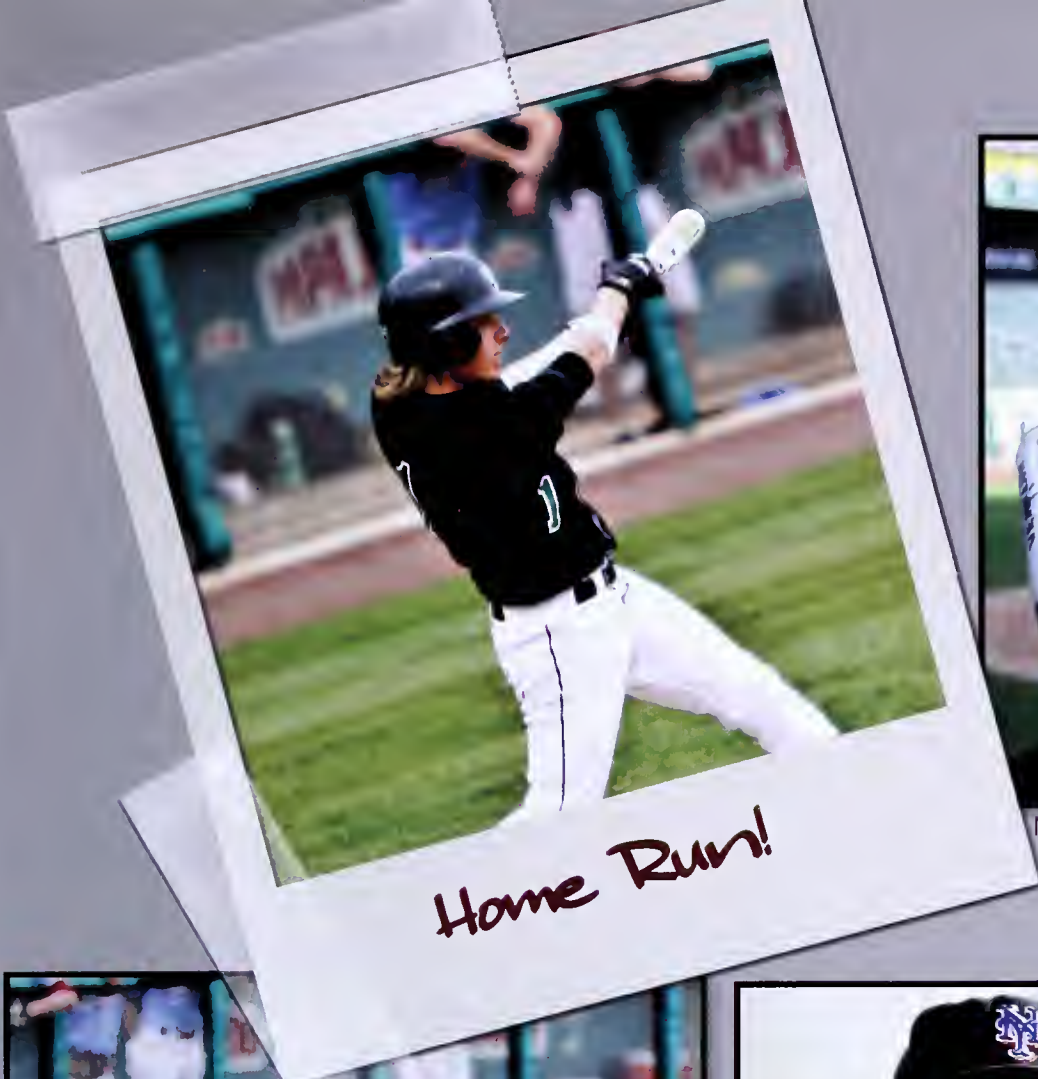

"The baseball team did really well but the season ended too early." - Zach Merrill

Our Baseball Team: Assistant Coach MacKennen Estrada, Head Coach Ben Voele, Zeke Bradley, Jamen Christensen, Hank Shipman, Taylor Nelson, Drew Dischmann, Brandon Mikuriya, Scott Silverstein, Harry Stone, Jake Graves, Spencer Jordan, Chris Fanning, Harry Aaronson, Zachary Merrill, Charly Rech, Ethan Arsht, Assistant Coach Chad Camp, and Assistant Coach Matt Bishop, make up the entire baseball team.

Top to bottom: Chris Fanning warms his arm up. Jake Graves throws the final strike for the opposing team. Drew Dischmann dons his catcher's gear for the 5th inning. Harry Aaronson scratches his head after watching the enemy team bat. Charly Rech warms up his batting arm in anticipation of a home run.

The baseball team had a great season this year. They won their second region championship. They made it all the way to the state tournament, but lost to the tough southern baseball teams. Our seniors Jake Graves, Chris Fanning, Will Baudenhasen, and Zachary Merrill led our team through every victory. Even though they had a rough start in the beginning of the season, they picked up momentum by the time the region tournament began. The team ended up only losing once in the tournament.

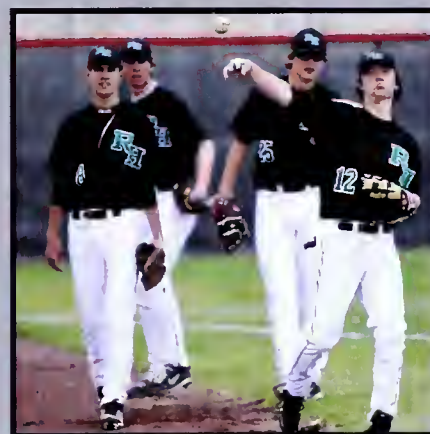

Not Bad: Ethan Arshl has the right attitude - confidence.

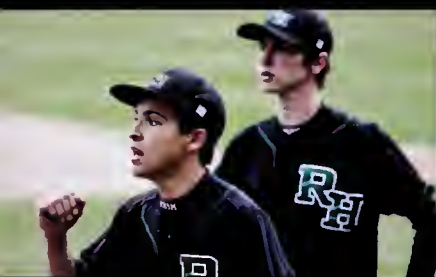

Safe! Zeke Bradley narrowly evades the tag as he slides into home.

School Spirit: Will Badenhausen shows support for his team even though his injury prevents him from playing.

Unstoppable: Jamen Christensen, Jake Graves, Chris Fanning, and Hank Shipman get loose in the pre-game warm up.

Left to right: Becca Glazier waits for her turn to hit. Gaby Rosenada and Marisa Eng look tough between innings. Jena Glazier gets ready to catch the ball. Silvia Padilla, Jena Glazier Marisa Eng and Noelani Blueford get ready for their time to play.

Seniors: Jena Glazier, Hope DeLap and Rachel Snyder talk to Leslie Varoz, assistant coach, while preparing for a game.

Girls' Softball

"Rip them up, tear them up. give them hell, green!"

ROWLAND HALL SOFTBALL TEAM ~ 2012

Hey batter batter: Captain Jena Glazier steps up to bat.

Go Girls' Softball! Another season of softball has started, and again their fearless leaders Coaches, Howa and Kendra are in charge. This season there are three new players, Becca Glazier, Noelani Blueford and Gaby Rosenada. The team captains are Hope DeLap, Jena Glazier and Rachel Snyder. It has been a great learning experience for the girls who have just joined the team this year and we are looking forward to the great years to come.

Captain Hope: Hope DeLap shows how excited she is to play softball.

Outfielder: Silvia Padilla, playing outfield. Waiting and watching for the ball.

Manager: Sydney Tatomer, team manager helps the coaches and players of the softball team.

On the ball: Captain Sam Nolan sprints forward on his way to make a play.

Boys' Soccer

"We're more than just a team, we're brothers."

Diehard fans: Jan Schott, Steph Schott, Olivia Fillion, Ben Smith and his son Elliott enjoy an epic game!

The soccer team did well this year. They won the majority of their games throughout the season. Last year, they tied with South Summit as region co-champions. This year they became region co-champions again along with St. Joe's with their win over South Summit at the end of the season. Unfortunately, their season came to an end with their unfortunate and unexpected loss in the first round of the State Tournament against Beaver in an overtime shootout.

Warrior: Blake Shott, an instrumental player on the team, battles for control of the ball.

Speedy: Senior, Andy Gilbert sprints down the field.

Tricky: Johnny Bebbington, senior and a key player on the team, was unfortunately injured and unable to play the last three games of the season.

Boys' Tennis

"There can only be one."

The boys' tennis team had a very successful season led by seniors Scott Treiman, Kapil Sharma and Matteo Brunelli. The fan support at the region tournament was great and the team took the region title yet again. Unfortunately, the winged lions met tough competition and earned second place in the state tournament. The team continues to improve with five state titles in the last six years under their belt and a lot of young players waiting for their chance. Go boys' tennis!

Top to bottom: Tyler Labov loves tennis. Scott Treiman pursues the ball. Aaron Friedman shows off his impressive forehand. Bryce Baker slams the ball. Kian Stevenson enjoys the day.

The brains behind the boys' tennis team: Owen Sleeper looks on with disapproval while watching a match.

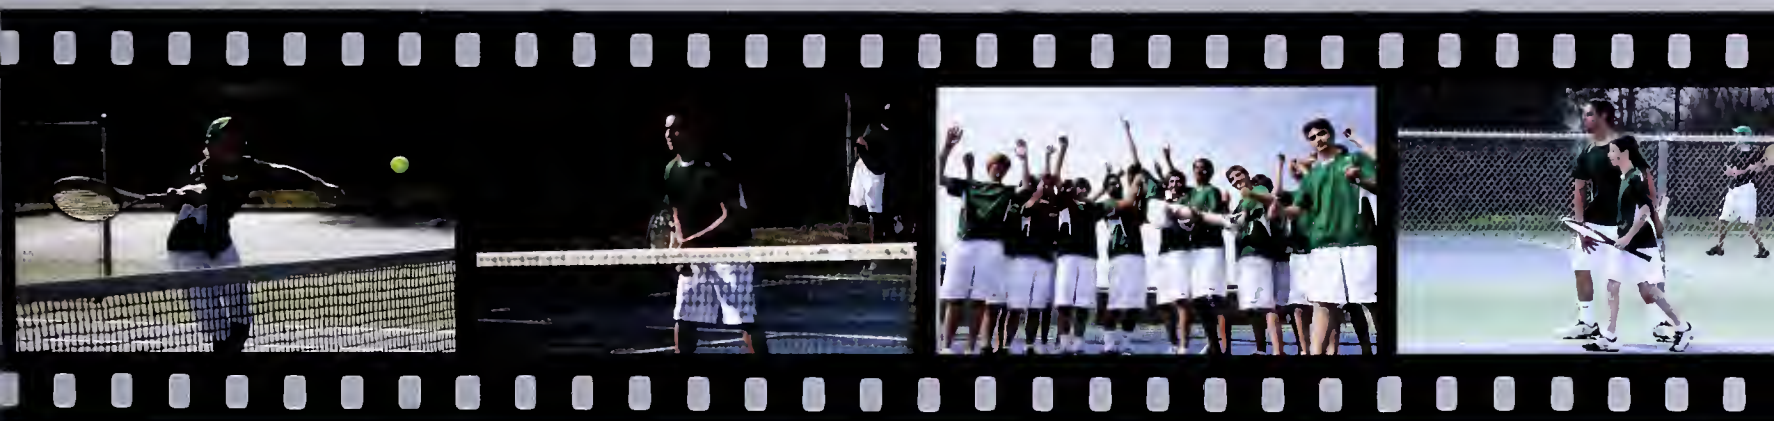

Chilling out: Jonathan Zubair, Kyle Cowdrey, Trevor Falls, and Kian Stevenson enjoy the match.

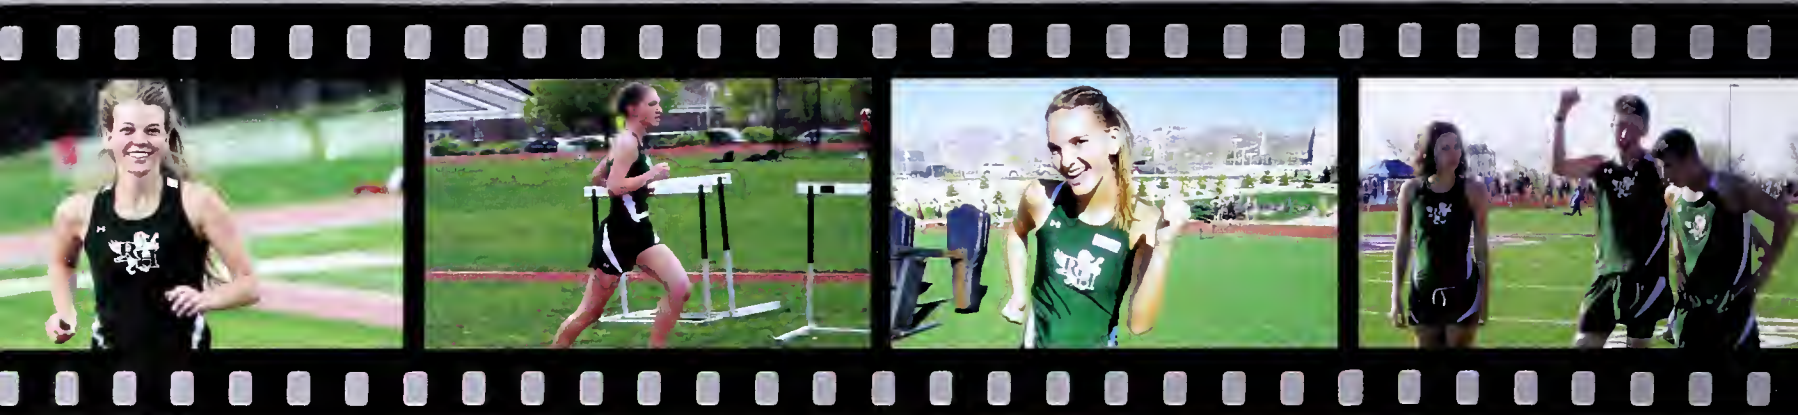

Victorious: Captain Scott Treiman smashes the tennis ball.

Smashdown: Senior Kapil Sharma sets up an ace and wins his game..

Left to right: Jonathan Zubair and Kyle Cowdrey watch the games. Matthew Zubair hustles to save the ball. Kapil Sharma and Karim Shaaban are ready to win. The boys' tennis team parties it up. Karim Shaaban and Aaron Friedman are ready to take on St. Joe's.

Left to right: Annie White smiles through the pain. Emily Nicoloff trots along in the 1600 m run. Reid Silverman displays her excitement before the 800 m run. Corrie Harris, Parker Bushnell, and Saeed Shihab rejoice after a victory.

Determination: Nels Ballard and Lachlan Murphy are in fierce competition in the 800 m race.

Track & Field

"Track has offered me a feeling of completion and fulfillment. And makes me look good."

- Cameron Galt

Focus: Rainy Paul is very determined to win in her 300 m hurdles race.

Hurdling to Victory!

Left to right: Top Row: Ryan Westerman, Parker Bushnell, Cameron Galt, Thad Lampson, Wesley Austin, Alex Beaufort, Matt Bernstein, Chris Nkoy, Malik Adams, Randy Townner (coach). Second Row: Eli Oftedal, Mackay Hare, Colby Russo-Hatch, Ariel Feola, Jess Sterrett, Steph Schott, Saeed Shihab, Katherine Edgley, Charis Benjamin, Lauren Rasich, Rainy Paul, Bruce Hunter (coach). Third Row: Mark Oftedal (coach), Megan Chandramouli, Lauren Utz, Annie White, Sydney Maves, Qianyu Lin, Kumbee Kim, Reid Silverman, Madeline Foley, Rodney Kopish (coach). Bottom Row: Megan Call (coach), Liza Badenhause, Emily Sundquist, Olivia Pecora, Madeline Helier, Emily Nicoloff, Candice Nkoy, Lily Binns.

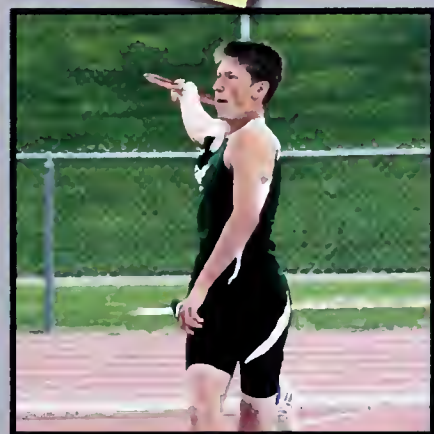

With a team of 47 members, the Rowland Hall Track & Field team excelled in every event this season. Track events range from the shortest 100 meter dash to the strenuous 3200 meter run. Field events consist of long jump, high jump, javelin, shot put, and discus. Coaches Mark Oftedal, Rodney Kopish, and Megan Call led the team to success this season. The future looks bright for the newly created track team!

Perseverance: Steph Schott sprints for the finish in her 300 m hurdle race.

The leap: Chris Sundquist defies gravity to succeed in the long jump.

Captain domination: Parker Bushnell launches the javelin all the way across the world. Just kidding.

Girls' Golf

Staying focused: Kaitlin Ramsey has a good time at practice although she might want to work on keeping her eye on the ball.

Fore!

This year's girls' golf season was a huge success! The team won their region tournament with Grace Veghte placing second, Kaitlin Ramsey placing third, and Sara Mann placing fourth. They also qualified for the State tournament in St George. The team got two new freshmen this year, Grace Veghte and Georgia Larsen. Kaitlin Ramsey was the only junior and she had an amazing season! Kyleene Johnson and Sara Mann were the team's two seniors and helped lead the team.

Left to right: JZ Davis, Grace Veghte, Kaitlin Ramsey, Kyleene Johnson, Sara Mann, and Georgia Larsen.
